“God’s Unspeakable Gift of Peace”

2 Corinthians 9:15, Luke 2:7-14

As I continue on the subject of “God’s Unspeakable Gift”, today, I want to focus on His Gift of Peace. As many of you know Christmas can be a very stressful time of the year. According to most studies, this is a season of stress and distress, of sadness not gladness.

This morning our attention is on peace. After the one angel appeared to the shepherds in Luke 2:10 announcing “good news of great joy that will be for all the people,” suddenly an entire army of angelic messengers filled the sky with an outpouring of adoration and said in verse 14; “Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace, goodwill toward men!”

The phrase “Happy Holidays” is meaningless without an acknowledgement of the holiness of God. The precondition for peace is to first praise God for His glory and grace. The word “peace” appears over 400 times in Scripture. In the Old Testament, “peace” is the word shalom.

The word “peace” in the New Testament means to “join together; to set at one again.” It has the idea of gluing something back together. Jesus said in Matthew 5:9: “Blessed are the peacemakers, For they shall be called sons of God.”

It’s vital to understand that Jesus isn’t referring to being a peace-keeper but rather a peacemaker. The difference is that a peacemaker actively overcomes evil with good. But not everyone is a peacemaker – some are peace-breakers or peace-fakers and some Peace-MAKERS.

There are four truths I want to share about

“GOD’S UNSPEAKABLE GIFT OF PEACE”

- I. Peace with God – that’s the vertical dimension - Romans 5:1 gives the good news
- II. Peace of God – this takes place internally - John 14:27
- III. Peace with others – that’s peace horizontally - Romans 14:19
- IV. Peace for others – that’s the proclamation of peace in the gospel - Acts 10:36
